Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, in baptism you joined us to Christ in his death, that we might be raised with Christ into new life. Yet we allow the sins of the past to hold us hostage, and fear of the future to rob us of hope. Through the cross, forgive our willful sins and hidden faults. Please heal our relationships, and fill us with the peace of Christ. As we renew our baptism, remind us of who we are in Christ, and what we shall become by your amazing grace. In Jesus' Name. Amen.

RENEWAL OF BAPTISM

The Apostles' Creed

Do you believe in God the Father?

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Questions of Reaffirmation

Trusting in the gracious mercy of God, do you renounce all evil, and powers in the world which defy God's righteousness and love?

I renounce them.

Do you renounce the ways of sin that separate you from the love of God?

I renounce them.

Do you turn to Jesus Christ and accept him as your Lord and Savior?

I do.

Will you be Christ's faithful disciple, obeying his Word and showing his love, to your life's end?

I will, with God's help.

Prayer of Rededication

(During a time of music and worship, those who want to receive the laying on of hands and a prayer of blessing, and/or anointing with oil may come to the Elders and Deacons at the front of the church.)

I Will Rise

Benediction

Prayer Ministry

9:00am Meg McKinley

10:45am Emma Shaw

The altar flowers today are given to the glory of God and in remembrance of Christopher Abbott, by his loving family.

TODAY, on this first Sunday of Lent, there will be an opportunity to renew your baptism. Toward the end of the service, all are invited to come forward.

Elders and Deacons will be available at the front of the sanctuary. As you are led, you are invited to come forward and to stand or to kneel. You will be asked to state your full name, as in baptism. The Elders and Deacons will anoint you with oil, making the sign of the cross on your forehead. They will then offer a simple, declarative prayer of blessing: "I anoint you in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit for the renewal of your baptism. May the Lord bless you and keep you and grant you His peace. Amen."

The liturgy we are using comes out of the Presbyterian Book of Common Worship, including anointing with oil. So whether you were baptized as a baby, or as a believing young person or adult, this is an opportunity for you to renew your baptism.

If you have never been baptized or received Christ as your Lord and Savior, you might consider coming forward as a way of indicating you are ready to take that step. Then, at some point in the future, you could be baptized.

May today be a significant milestone in our walk with God, and a beautiful time of worship together. Glad you are here!

Teen Anxiety, the Family and the Church

It is not a new statement to say that being a teenager in today's world is difficult, but it is also the same for that of being a parent. There are new variables and new stresses that did not exist 50 years ago. However, in recent weeks there have been a few tragedies that have shaken the local schools. Teenage stress and anxiety seem to be at a high, if not chronic, level and it is easy to resign to the thought that, "we can't do anything about it." On this evening we will chat through some of these difficulties, consult the recent research on youth development, strategize supports for the family, and discuss how the Church can come alongside and be a partner in all of this. From 7-8:30pm, this event is open for parents of teens as well as children and is certainly open to any non-members.

For all youth-related questions, please contact John Chaffee 610-664-4880 x112

FOLLOWING JESUS

Application Questions from today's sermon for individuals or small groups:

Matthew 3:13-17; Galatians 3:26-29; Romans 6:1-4; Ephesians 1:13,14

- Have you been baptized? If so, when were you baptized and in what context? If not, what would it mean for you to take this step? What are the incentives or hesitations?
- The Westminster Confession, one of the theological confessions which guides our faith and practice states: "The efficacy of baptism is not tied to the time in which it is administered." Regardless of when you were baptized, what does your baptism mean to you today, and how can you reclaim its "efficacy?"
- In Revelation 2:1-5, the church at Ephesus is commended for their hard work and perseverance, but rebuked for "forgetting their first love." Can you recall a time of "first love" from God? What does it mean (or not mean) for your first love to be restored? How can this happen?
- Baptism celebrates what God has done for us in Christ. From Romans 6:1-4 and Ephesians 1:13,14, list all the blessings that we have received through baptism and faith in Christ.
- From Romans 6:1-14, what does it mean practically to live out the death and resurrection of Christ? Does this language of death and resurrection suggest that we have regarded the meaning of baptism too lightly?
- From Matthew 3:13-17, John the Baptist preached a baptism of repentance for forgiveness of sins. Jesus had no sin (Hebrews 2:17, 4:15). Why then was Jesus baptized? What righteousness did he fulfill? (Cf. Isaiah 53:12).
- The culmination of Jesus' baptism was the glorious affirmation of God's love. What might have been the significance of this for Jesus? Especially considering what happened next for him? (Matthew 4:1-11).
- Baptism is often referred to as a rite or sacrament of "identity." How so? How have you experienced God's affirmation of you as his beloved son or daughter?
- After baptism, the waters of baptism dry off, but not the faithfulness of God. His faithfulness needs no renewal, only ours. How does the "seal" of the Holy Spirit encourage you to persevere through sin and failure? (Ephesians 1:13,14; Philippians 1:6; 2Timothy 1:12).
