Gracious God, you have made us for yourself and our hearts are restless until we find our rest in you. We confess that we have turned away from you, the springs of living water. Commotion, busyness, and noise have diminished the sound of your voice. Please forgive us through the death and resurrection of Christ. Help us to live as people who are called, not driven. Please restore wholeness in all the relationships of life. Thank you for your invitation today to commune with you, and with one another, that we may serve the One who is bread for the world. Following Jesus
Why You Were Called

Steve Weed,
Pastor

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Invitation To Communion

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise

It is truly right and our greatest joy to give you thanks and praise, O God our creator and redeemer. In your wisdom, you made all things and sustain them by your power.

You formed us in your image to love and serve you, but we forgot your promises and abandoned your commandments. In your mercy, you did not reject us but still claimed us as your own.

You are holy, O God of majesty, and blessed is Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord. He took upon himself the weight of our sin and carried the burden of our guilt on the cross. He shared our life in every way, and though tempted, was sinless to the end. Remembering all your mighty and merciful acts, we take this bread and this wine from the gifts you have given us, and celebrate with joy the redemption won for us in Jesus Christ.

Accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving as a living and holy offering of ourselves, that our lives may proclaim the One crucified and risen. Make us eager to work with you in building a better world, so that it may listen to your Church and its gospel of peace. We confess, Lord, that we have sinned, wash us clean by your gift of salvation.

Great is the mystery of faith:
Christ has died,
Christ is risen,
Christ will come again. Amen.

10:45am John Furlong

The altar flowers today are given to the glory of God and in thankfulness and loving memory of her husband, Tom and her son, Thomas by Joey Nangle.

Today on this first Sunday of the month, we celebrate Holy Communion. As Presbyterian Christians, we invite all who profess faith in Jesus Christ to receive communion, regardless of denominational affiliation or membership in this church. At the 9:00 service you are invited to receive communion by coming forward down the center aisle. We break off a piece of the bread (gluten free available), dip it in the cup and eat. At the 10:45 service, the Elders and Deacons serve you bread and the cup in your seats.

CDs of today's sermon are available in the Chapel within 15 minutes after the service. Previous Sundays' sermons are available by date in the bin on the small table. Sermons are also available online at our website www.narberthpres.org or podcast through iTunes.

Thank you for being with us in worship today! To learn more about our church, Welcome Bags are available for newcomers in the Narthex

Breakfast!

Next Sunday morning, March 11, we are springing forward by one hour. To “motivate” and to “celebrate”, all are invited to share a delicious hot breakfast in the gym, between 8-9am, or 10:00-10:45am. We are grateful for a cooking team of Hugh Barrie, Dave McIntire, Sam DiLullo (supervisor ☺) Mike Morrison, and others whom the Lord may be calling! Please defy any sleepiness to worship God and enjoy food, fellowship, and plenty of caffeinated coffee!

March 7th: Teen Anxiety, the Family and the Church

It is not a new statement to say that being a teenager in today's world is difficult, but it is also the same for that of being a parent. There are new variables and new stresses that did not exist 50 years ago. That being said, in recent weeks there have been a few tragedies that have shaken the local schools. Teenage stress and anxiety seem to be at a high, if not chronic, level and it is easy to resign to the thought that, "we can't do anything about it." On this evening we will chat through some of these difficulties, consult the recent research on youth development, strategize supports for the family, and discuss how the Church can come alongside and be a partner in all of this. Plan to join us Wednesday, March 7th from 7:00-8:30 in the gym. This event is open for parents of teens and children and is certainly open to the community. Child care will be provided.

Unbound: From time to time we all experience obstacles to knowing the peace of Christ in our daily lives. Unbound is a ministry that helps us find the joy and freedom that Jesus desires for us. Personal prayer sessions are available on Sundays at 10:45 am with Gene and Becky McGee and on Wednesday evenings with Dana and Maria Kaminstein at 7 pm. Sessions available by appointment only. Contact Gene (267-446-9598), Becky (215-287-3844), Dana (610-247-4825), Maria (610-247-4927).

RESOURCES FOR LENT

In A Cry for Mercy, Henri Nouwen describes the season of Lent as a time “during which winter and spring struggle with each other for dominance.” Nouwen reminds us that “God’s mercy is greater than our sins,” and that we may seek Him accordingly. Lent offers us the opportunity to come out of the places of winter or darkness in our lives into God’s light and love.

Jesus opened his public ministry with the words, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.” Repent—turn around—reconsider how you are living. Lent is an invitation to do so, and to return to the One who waits to be gracious to each of us. In doing so, we say with John the Baptist, “He (Christ) must increase, but I must decrease.” With hopeful joy as we journey towards Good Friday and Easter, consider some of the following resources.

Sermon series: Pastor Steve’s preaching focus for Lent and Easter will have us Following Jesus.

Daily readings: Preparing for Easter: Fifty Devotional Readings from C.S. Lewis. Selections from Lewis’ writings paired with Scripture passages to help the reader prepare to celebrate the “grand miracle” Jesus accomplished through the cross.

On the Way to the Cross: 40 Days with the Church Fathers by Thomas Oden and Joel Elowsky. Jesus’ life seen in the Gospel of John and writings of the church fathers.

Online prayer guide: Praying Lent 2018—a Creighton University online ministry <http://onlineministries.creighton.edu/CollaborativeMinistry/Lent/> (or google “Praying Lent 2018”) A daily guide of prayers, scripture readings and written reflections from this respected Catholic source.

Scripture focus: Read and meditate on the Gospel accounts of Jesus’ entry to Jerusalem, sacrifice at the cross, and triumph of Easter as found in Matthew (chapters 21-28), Mark (ch 11-16), Luke (ch 19:28 – 24:53), and John (ch 12-20).

Habits of compassion, justice and peace: Sacrifice time, treasure and talent to express God’s love for others. Join Jennifer Bonovitz (jmbonovitz@gmail.com) as she and others feed the homeless; exhibit God’s love for orphans and children in need by “adopting” a child through Compassion International or World Vision; expand your awareness of the evils of human trafficking; pursue personal reconciliation using the guidelines set forth by Ken Sande and Kevin Johnson in Resolving Everyday Conflict.

Other resources: Read a 20th-century Christian classic you’ve always meant to get to: Life Together by Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Celebration of Discipline by Richard Foster or Mere Christianity by C. S. Lewis; align your heart more closely with the heart of God with David Benner’s Desiring God’s Will; journey with Jerry Sittser through A Grace Disguised to see how the soul can grow through loss; deepen your understanding of God’s heart for justice by examining Tim Keller’s Generous Justice, Gary Haugen’s Good News about Injustice or Richard Stearns’ The Hole in our Gospel.

Application Questions from

- The sermon title today is: "Why You Were Called" What does it mean to be "called?" Do you see yourself as a person who is called? To what? To whom? How is being called different than being driven?
- In the New Testament, there are various words or phrases use to describe one who believes in Christ and seeks to follow him. What does it mean to call yourself a "Christian?" A "disciple?" Do you have any hesitations in describing yourself in either way?
- From Matthew 4:19, what does it mean to be a disciple of Jesus? From Matthew 28:18-20, how do you see yourself participating in the great commission to "make disciples?" Can you think of a primary sphere of life where this happens? (Family, work, church, neighborhood, leisure or recreational activities, volunteer work, community causes).
- Our church's mission statement says:
"We build disciples in the love of Jesus Christ by:
Growing UP, growing TOGETHER, and growing OUT.
- Likewise, from Luke 6:12-19, Henri Nouwen describes discipleship as relationship in 3 movements - from solitude, to community, to ministry. As you reflect on each of these, how would you evaluate each one in your life? Which is strongest? Which needs more emphasis? Where does a sense of rhythm or balance need to be cultivated or restored?
- Solitude - your relationship with God, including the practice of prayer and other spiritual disciples.
Community - your connection and commitment to other disciples in the body of Christ.
Ministry - the use of your time and gifts to serve others in the world.
- Take time to conduct an annual spiritual exam. If Jesus were to "re-call" you as his follower, what would he say to you today? Jesus speaking: "In this season of your life, I am calling you to.....?"
