FROM THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Elders

As there were in Old Testament times elders for the government of the people, so the New Testament Church provided persons with particular gifts to share in governing and ministry. Elders should be persons of faith, dedication and good judgment. Their manner of life should be a demonstration of the Christian gospel, both within the church and in the world.

It is the duty of elders, individually and jointly, to strengthen and nurture the faith and life of the congregation committed to their charge. Together with the pastor, they should encourage the people in the worship of God, equip and renew them for their tasks in the church and for their mission in the world, visit and comfort and care for the people, with special attention to the poor, the sick, the lonely and those who are oppressed. They should inform the pastor and the session of those persons and structures that may need special attention. They should assist in worship. They should cultivate their ability to teach the Bible and may be authorized to supply places that are without the regular ministry of the Word and Sacrament. Those duties that all Christians are bound to perform by the law of love are especially incumbent upon elders because of their calling to office and are to be fulfilled by them as official responsibilities. (Excerpts from the Book of Order)

Deacons

The office of deacon as set forth in Scripture is one of sympathy, witness, and service after the example of Jesus Christ. Persons of spiritual character, honest repute, of exemplary lives, brotherly and sisterly love, warm sympathies, and sound judgment should be chosen for this office.

It is the duty of deacons, first of all, to minister to those who are in need, to the sick, to the friendless, and to any who may be in distress both within and beyond the community of faith. They shall assume such other duties as may be delegated to them from time to time by the session, such as leading the people in worship through prayers of intercession, reading the Scriptures, presenting the gifts of the people, and assisting with the Lord's Supper. (Excerpts from the Book of Order)

IN-PERSON AND VIRTUAL OPPORTUNITIES

New Fellowship Opportunity

Looking to connect with other NPC people you haven't seen in a while? Or maybe even to meet some NPC people you don't know – yet?

Then join Gaby Anik and Naveen Daniel Thursday nights from 7pm – 8pm on Zoom! This is a friendly “chat room” where you come when you can, and leave when you need.

Have a friend outside the church that may be homebound, feeling a little isolated, and needs some socializing? Invite them to our Zoom chat.

All are welcomed.

Come with your coffee, iced tea, or joke of the day! Just come. Join in. Re-connect.

To join, send your email to the office at kpappas@narberthpres.org You'll get an invite to the Thursday night Zoom meeting. And don't worry if you're new to Zoom.

It's easy, it's fun, and we'll guide you through the few steps to get on board.

Outdoor Book Study

Pastor Steve is finishing his book study on The Jesus I Never Knew by Philip Yancey. The good Lord and weather permitting, we are meeting OUTDOORS on 4 Friday nights - July 31, August 7,14,21 from 7:15 - 8:30pm in the Parking Lot.

Even if you were not previously a part of the Book Study (which last met on Wednesday March 11) you may attend. We will cover the last 4 chapters on the grand topics of the resurrection, ascension, kingdom of God, and the difference Jesus makes today.

Because of our distance from one another, there will probably be less discussion than a normal book study. Pastor Steve will be miked. Unfortunately, we are unable to provide childcare at this time. In case of rain, we will meet in the Chapel.

If you would like to attend, please email or call Karen Pappas (610-664-4880 x119) in order to register, or if you have any questions.

Looking forward to actually SEEING you! Pastor Steve

Sunday School Class: Romans Paul's Letter to the Romans:

This is an in-depth study of what, in Martin Luther's view, is truly “the chief part of the New Testament.” Every Christian should know it word for word, by heart.”

Similarly, John Calvin wrote that “if we have gained a true understanding of this epistle, we have an open door to all the most profound treasures of Scripture.” During July and August, 2020, every Sunday from 11:00am to noon, we will have an engaging, thought-provoking, interactive session on Zoom. Join any or all sessions as you are able. Email markfwenger@yahoo.com to get the Zoom link. Led by Mark Wenger.

ADULT DISCIPLESHIP

Resource List for Racial Justice and Reconciliation

Dear NPC family,

We are excited to share with you four Christ-centered, Scripturally-based resources that address the issues of racial justice and reconciliation. The first three are videos from speakers who address racial issues with great wisdom and encouragement, including some moving testimonies. The fourth is a comprehensive, 40-day devotional called “An American Lament” that is structured around prayer, Scripture, reflection, and response. It is an educational and deeply Spirit-filled resource that you can work through alone or with others. You can download the entire devotional at the website below. We pray that you will find these resources as helpful to you as they have been for us.

With Love and Blessings,
The Adult Discipleship Committee

"Job Pt. 1 - Wait, Job Got Set Up?" is a 30 min podcast that has John reading through the first three chapters of the book of Job, chatting through it, and explaining how these chapters set the stage for the rest of the book. This is part 1 of 3. Click here to listen to the 30 min audio.

SAFETY AND SECURITY COMMUNICATIONS

NEW INFORMATION

Small Groups. Group leaders can schedule in-person meetings (up to 25) indoors or out. General meetings can be scheduled indoors in the Parlor or the Chapel. Outdoor meetings (up to 20) can be held in the courtyard at the corner of Windsor and Hampden; larger gatherings (up to 40) can be held in the parking lot. AA and Counseling ministries have also resumed; please consult the leaders of those meetings if needed. Please watch for communication from Youth Ministry leadership as to when and how meetings will be resumed. Out of love for our neighbor, all NPC meetings, whether indoors or outdoors, will require mask-wearing, appropriate 6 foot social distancing and frequent hand washing. All meetings must be scheduled in advance. Please contact Karen Pappas (kpappas@narberthpres.org) to schedule your small group meetings and obtain guidance for room setup and health protocols.

Worship Services. The Safety & Security team continues to monitor health safety guidance to develop planning recommendations for resumption of in-person sanctuary worship that will enable NPC to be ready at such time as in-person worship becomes possible again. Renewing in-person worship will require the effort and hands-on work of many people, not only with worship leaders to but also with greeters, ushers, medical personnel, and others to assist in guiding traffic, reducing bottlenecks and helping to avoid face-to-face contacts from occurring. NPC appreciates your prayers as leadership seeks to discern the balance of needs in our corporate church body for in-person fellowship with equally strong priorities for safety and security. We hope to prepare for our return to worshipping together in ways that will bring glory to God and responsibly protect the health and safety of our members and friends. Please stay tuned for future updates and follow-up surveys to ensure we have your current views on returning to in-person Worship Services.

NPC Christian Pre-School. NPC's Christian Pre-School leadership plans are being reviewed to ensure they are in alignment with state and federal guidelines and regulations. Safety and Security team members have also been working with PreSchool leaders on developing this plan so that it adheres to the same social distancing and responsible practices that are built into the NPC Small Group Meeting plans and will be part of the In-Sanctuary Worship plan. Medical professionals are also actively involved with developing Preschool plan, which will be finalized and submitted to Session for decision-making in the coming weeks. Please remember, there is no pressure for friends and members to resume in-person activities, as virtual options will continue to be a vibrant and safe option at NPC for everyone.

We welcome suggestions and feedback that can be directed to Tim Roykouff, Business Administrator, troykouff@narberthpres.org.
