Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, we praise you that you have made every one of us in your image. In Christ, you have forever demonstrated your mighty and merciful love. You have called us by name, and we are yours. Yet we confess that we struggle to believe this good news. We compare ourselves to others, and we live by performance instead of by grace. Too often we listen to voices that are not true to your word. Please forgive us, cleanse us, and renew our minds. By your grace, help us to see ourselves and others the way you see us. Through the eyes of Jesus. Amen.

ANNOUCEMENTS

Racial Reconciliation Assistance Committee

A new branch of the Justice and Mercy tree of ministries has sprouted! In our ongoing growth as a congregation who individually and together seek to follow in Jesus' footsteps by loving God and neighbor in ever-deeper, life-changing ways, NPC has established a Racial Reconciliation Assistance Committee. Through it, we have an opportunity to begin making a small but significant difference in the world by investing in Black people in our communities, through grants to help them rise above limitations they experience because of their race. These grants could help cover such things as college application fees, textbooks, vocational training and/or appropriate work clothing – things we may not think much about, but which can be out of reach for some people. A small grant, offered with the love of Jesus, could be the cup of cold water he spoke of in the Gospels, and help that person experience the love of Christ meeting them and their need, through us. Please contact any committee member: Anne Barr, Linda Behmke, Lori Lasher, Ashley Reed, or Marilyn Reed with names of possible recipients, and please pray for this new endeavor and us to shine with the love and justice Jesus has for all people.

Dr. Janet Moore has been serving in our Counseling Ministry for over 16 years, working with individuals struggling with a wide range of personal and psychological challenges. Dr. Moore's perspective is that addressing mental health issues is essential to opening our hearts and minds, thereby enabling a closer relationship with God that can sustain us in an imperfect world. You may reach Dr. Moore by leaving a message on her church extension, 610-664-4880 (ext. 121), or at 484-686-6630.

Wednesday Nights, 7:00-8:00pm

Pastor Steve is leading an in-person class on "How To Grow In Sharing Your Faith." In one sentence, our goal is to be inspired and trained to share the good news of Jesus Christ in word and deed, in an atmosphere of encouragement and gentle accountability. There will be Bible Study, sharing, and mutual encouragement. We will also pray for our friends and neighbors to be drawn to Christ, and for each of us to grow in our personal witness. If you have interest or questions, please email Pastor Steve at sweed@narberthpres.org or text at (610) 761-0061.

From Fear to Freedom: Living as Sons and Daughters of God, by Rose Marie Miller, is the basis of a 12 week book study this Fall. If you've ever worried about not measuring up, as a Christian, then this class is for you! You will need a book, which you can pick up at church, or order yourself. $12 donation per book.
