Gracious God, we praise you that in Christ we are your beloved sons and daughters. We are no longer slaves. We confess that we often forget who we are. We have allowed our love for you and for others to grow cold. We have used more energy in judging others than reforming ourselves. Please forgive us through the cross of Christ. Help us to yield our will to yours, and to depend less on our natural feelings and more on your Spirit of grace. Please deliver us from self-absorption into the joy of caring for others. In Jesus' Name. Amen.
