Gracious God, we thank you for your love which frees us to be honest and to walk in the light. We confess that we live in a dry and weary land, but we have not relied on you for refreshment and hope. We have labored for what does not satisfy, and we keep trying to do life on our own. Please forgive us. Restore to us the vibrancy of our faith. Because you are a loving Father, teach us to pray our desires, trusting that you can shape them, and us, into the fulfillment of your good purpose. In Jesus' Name. Amen.

Prayer Focus: The Antioch Partners

For those called to long-term, cross-cultural engagement, special training and support structures are necessary. The Antioch Partners works alongside local Presbyterian churches in the US to help people get from where they are now to where God is calling them to be, and then not just to survive, but to thrive, in their ministry callings.
