Prayer of Confession

In Psalm 22, David says, "Do not be far from me, for trouble is near, and there is no one to help." In another he says, "When I am afraid, I will trust in you, my God, in whom I trust." And yet, when we look ahead, so often dread is our reality, rather than trust. We cannot see beyond what we fear, and we cannot see you, God, who promise never to leave us or forsake us, and we panic. Forgive us, merciful God. In our fears, in our failures, in our suffering and our pain, point us to Jesus, who never lost sight of you, and never failed to trust you, even as he died on the cross. Renew our trust, and our hope in you, we ask in Jesus' strong and faithful name, amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sits on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right and our greatest joy to give you thanks and praise, eternal God, our creator. You have given us life and a second birth by your Spirit. Once we were no people, but now we are your people.

You claimed Israel as your chosen nation, and raised up the church as a witness to the resurrection, breathing into it your life and power. Young and old, from all around the world you gathered us. When we go astray, you call us back, forgive us, and welcome us home. Always, your love has been steadfast.

You are holy, O God of majesty, and blessed is Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord. With love for you, and compassion for all, Jesus healed and taught, challenged and comforted, welcomed and saved. He formed a community, promised to be with his disciples, wherever two or three were gathered, and sent them on his mission of hope and healing in the world.

Jesus entrusted his life to you God, and went freely to his death, so the world might be set free from suffering and sin. You raised Jesus from death, and by faith, you raise us to live a new life with him. In the power of the Holy Spirit, you send us out to make disciples as he commanded.

Great is the mystery of faith.

Christ has died,

Christ is risen,

Christ will come again.

Amen.

THE SPIRITUAL LEADERSHIP OF ELDERS AND DEACONS

At our best, Elders and Deacons seek by the grace of God to be examples of Jesus Christ and models of the quality-of-life which God desires for the whole church. It is a great privilege and responsibility – we welcome your prayers!

Elders

As there were in Old Testament times elders for the government of the people, so the New Testament Church provided persons with particular gifts to share in governing and ministry. Elders should be persons of faith, dedication, and good judgment. Their manner of life should be a demonstration of the Christian gospel, both within the church and in the world.

It is the duty of elders, individually and jointly, to strengthen and nurture the faith and life of the congregation committed to their charge. Together with the pastor, they should encourage the people in the worship of God, equip and renew them for their tasks in the church and for their mission in the world, visit and comfort and care for the people, with special attention to the poor, the sick, the lonely and those who are oppressed. They should inform the pastor and the session of those persons and structures that may need special attention. They should assist in worship. They should cultivate their ability to teach the Bible and may be authorized to supply places that are without the regular ministry of the Word and Sacrament. Those duties that all Christians are bound to perform by the law of love are especially incumbent upon elders because of their calling to office and are to be fulfilled by them as official responsibilities. (Excerpts from the Book of Order (2009/11))

Deacons

The office of deacon as set forth in Scripture is one of compassion, witness, and service after the example of Jesus Christ. Persons of spiritual character, honest repute, of exemplary lives, brotherly and sisterly love, sincere compassion, and sound judgment should be chosen for this office.

It is the duty of deacons, first of all, to minister to those who are in need, to the sick, to the friendless, and to any who may be in distress both within and beyond the community of faith. They shall assume such other duties as may be delegated to them from time to time by the session, such as leading the people in worship through prayers of intercession, reading the Scriptures, presenting the gifts of the people, and assisting with the Lord's Supper. (Excerpts from the Book of Order (2009/11))

The Nominating Committee is receiving recommendations for the offices of Elder and Deacon to begin in January 2024. It is not necessary to obtain the permission of the person you are suggesting. It is preferable for the Nominating Committee to make the initial contact should this person be nominated.

In light of the description above, if you have individuals to suggest for Elder, please write them down below. Please describe briefly why you believe the individual would be suitable for this office.

Notes From Justice and Mercy: Did you know that human trafficking is a $150 billion a year industry? More people are trapped in slavery today than at any other time in human history, including when slavery was legal. Millions of these slaves are children. (From the movie, Sound of Freedom) One of our mission causes is Redeemed For A Cause. Their mission is to serve trafficking victims in Philadelphia, acting as a catalyst to help them realize their intrinsic worth and true potential. RFAC has provided thousands of care packages and meals, along with hundreds of trainings/workshops, and has served several thousand women and teens. RFAC acts through a street outreach team, and a drop-in center, providing basic needs, life skills workshops, health education and screenings and groups. Want to know more? You can pray, go see the movie Sound of Freedom, share what you have learned, and/or come out and help in RFAC's office. Please contact Sally Kapner or Debbie Watson to get involved. Why? God's children are not for sale.

Flower Dedication:  Each week beautiful flowers grace the altar of the church. They remind us of the Lord's goodness and are a way to honor Him. You may provide one week's flowers with a donation of $25. Flowers may be given in memory/honor of someone or simply to God's glory; your dedication will be acknowledged in the weekly bulletin. If you would like to dedicate flowers, please call Sara in the church office.
